THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY November 13th, to MONDAY November 20th, 1749.

The SPEECH of His Excellency GABRIEL JOHNSTON, Esq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of North-Carolina, to the General Assembly, at Newbern, October 18*th*, 1749.

Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

IT is with great Satisfaction that I now congratulate you on finishing the Revisal of your Laws, in order to their being printed: A Work earnestly desir'd, and zealously struggled for, by every honest Man, for these Fifteen Years by past; but never could be got accomplished, till now, by Reason of the violent Opposition and low Intrigues of a restless Set of Men, who will always find their Account in keeping the Country in Ignorance and Confusion.

IT is from this happy Period you may date your having any Laws at all; for when Laws are not duly promulgated, when the Copies of them are hard to come at, and abound with Errors and Mistakes of different Transcribers; such a Situation is really, and in Effect, very little different from being entirely without Laws.

IT must be a vast Pleasure to you, Gentlemen, when you reflect, That Providence has made you Instruments of doing so much Good to your Fellow Subjects, your Country, and Posterity? And I hope that what you have done (tho' it is a great deal more than could have reasonably been expected in so short a Time) is only an Earnest, and small Beginning of what the Public may expect from your future Endeavours. There are many Things, essential to the Happiness and Prosperity of Society, still wanting among Us; I shall only point out Two of them at present: The First is, The Want of a sufficient Provision for maintaining the Publick Service and Worship of Almighty God, in which we are most shamefully, and beyond all other Provinces in His Majesty's Dominions, deficient: And next to that, A Provision for the farther Security of the Estates and Properties of Widows and Orphans: By the First of These, you give a Proof of that Reverence and Regard to the Supreme Governor of the Universe, so justly due to Him from all his rational Creatures, and without whose Aid and Blessing, all your other Endeavours will prove to little Purpose; by the Second, you will have an Opportunity of shewing a becoming Pity and Compassion on the most Feeble and Helpless, and upon that Account, I am afraid, frequently the most injured and oppressed Part of the Human Species.

AFTER so hard and laborious a Session, I do not propose these Matters to your immediate Consideration; but I heartily wish you would consult your Constituents on these Points, and come ready prepared to enter upon them at your next Meeting. I shall detain you no longer, Gentlemen, only to wish you a happy Return to your Families and Plantations.

London, August 17. We are assured, from good Authority, that six Pardons, for as many Persons, (two of whom are beyond the Seas) are preparing in Form for passing the Great Seal.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, who is now at Paris, will soon set out from thence as his Majesty's Ambassador to the King of Sardinia.

Lord Ogilvie, who has had a Regiment of Horse raised for him in the Irish Brigades in the French Service since his Escape from Scotland, lay at the Point of Death at Cambray on the 14th of July.

London, August 19. Letters from Turin by this Day's Holland Mail, inform us, that a Marriage between the Duke of Savoy, eldest Son of the King of Sardinia, and the Infanta Donna Maria-Antonietta of Spain, is absolutely agreed on; and we are further informed that this Intermarriage is to be succeeded by a new Treaty of Alliance between the two Courts.

On Monday sailed for Lisbon from Spithead, the Glorioso Man of War, which is bought up for the Use of the King of Portugal, having on board several Persons of Note going for that Kingdom, besides great Quantities of warlike Stores.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, intends to set out for that Kingdom the latter End of this Month.

We hear that Col. Rich, Son of Sir Robert Rich, Bart. who had the Misfortune to have his Hand shot off in a Battle in Flanders, will have one of the vacant Regiments of Foot.

Paris, August 22. The King, being desirous to preserve Peace in the Church, has wrote circular Letters to all the Bishops in the Kingdom, signifying, that for the future they must not publish any Mandates concerning Points of Controversy in Religion, without first obtaining his Majesty's Approbation and Permission. In the same Letters he also tells them, that they should be cautious how they refuse the Sacraments to dying Persons reputed Jansenists, and avoid on such Occasions every thing that may breed ill Blood, or disturb the publick Repose. And lest the Bishops should not give due Attention to these Instructions, all the Printers of this City have been strictly charged not to print any Mandates of Bishops relating to religious Disputes, without a Licence from the Court.

On the 20th an Edict was register'd in Parliament, which will have very beneficial Effects both in Church and State, as all Monasteries of Nuns are hereby forbidden to take in any Novices before the Age of Twenty four Years and one Day: And as it is too common a Practice with Parents to put their Daughters into those Houses in their Infancy, whereby they take a Liking to that Way of Life before they can know any thing else, and so are wheedled to make their Vows just when they become marriageable; the same Edict enacts, that no Child brought up in a Nunnery shall be suffer'd to take the Veil, 'till she has lived Seven Years in the World; after which she may return to the Convent, if she likes it better.

Genoa, August 8. During these three Weeks past, a very great Number of Ships of all Nations have arrived at this Port, and particularly English Ships. The Trade with Great Britain revives daily, to the Advantage of both Nations, Genoa being the chief of all the Ports of Italy for the Consumption of English Commodities.

London, August 26. Upon a moderate Calculation made of the Number of Persons that will be employ'd at the commencement of the Scotch Fisheries, we are assured the following may be depended on.

|---|---|
| Mariners in the Fishing Vessels, 500 small Vessels being propoted to be employ'd, at sixteen Men each Vessel, one with another, being of different Burdens. | 8000 |
| Mariners employed in the Vessels for exporting the Fish to different Markets, and exporting Salt, | 20,000 |
| Persons of all Ages and both Sexes employ'd on Shore in the various Occupations of the Fishery. | 50,000 |
| Total of Persons to be employ'd in the said Fisheries, in its different Branches, Natives and Foreigners. | 78,000 |

It is proposed, after the first Year, to double the Number of Fishing Vessels, which must necessarily increase the Number of Persons to be employ'd in proportion to the Augmentation.

The above Account will not be thought too great when we consider the standing State of the Dutch Fisheries, which we have here inserted.

1000 small Vessels, 14 Men in each, —— —— —— 14,000

Employed

| | |
|---|---|
| Employ'd in exporting Fish and Salt, upwards of | 40,000 |
| Persons of all Ages and both Sexes, employ'd on Shore in the various Occupations of the Fishery | 100,000 |
| Total, according to the Dutch Account | 154,000 |
